Rules and Regulations

Land Parcel “Squares”

- A maximum number of 224 ‘land parcel’ squares are available to purchase for each round.
- Each ‘land parcel’ square costs $25. There is no limit on the number of squares an individual or family may purchase.
- A group of ‘land parcel’ squares - one for each round - can be purchased for $100.
- Tickets for ‘land parcel’ squares can be purchased until all 224 tickets are sold.

Grid Assignment

- The bingo grid will be clearly marked with all ‘land parcel’ squares being of equal shape and size.
- Assignment of squares within the grid will be drawn at random no later than March 18, 2021. The grid with square assignments will be posted online.

Rules

- The ‘land parcel’ square that gets the first cow pie will determine the winner.
- Bingo in the Barnyard is a virtual event without any spectators. The Winner will be contacted following the event.
- The prize for the Winner of Rounds 1-4 is $1,000 cash. The prize for the Winner of Round 5 is $250 cash and a patriotic quilt from Fairpark President Cheryl McGray.
- If the cow pie crosses more than one ‘land parcel’, the final decision is determined by the Judge.
